GREETINGS FROM OUR 2024 ICRS PRESIDENT

The International Cannabinoid Research Society (ICRS) is a non-political, non-religious organization dedicated to scientific research in all fields of the cannabinoids, ranging from biochemical, chemical and physiological studies of the endogenous cannabinoid system to studies of the abuse potential and medicinal use of Cannabis. A great strength of the ICRS is the diversity of its membership. Equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI) are core values, ethos and mission of the ICRS – to advance cannabinoid research and to support and celebrate the academic achievements of cannabinoid researchers, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, physical ability, age, gender or sexual orientation. ICRS EDI policies can be found here.

The International Cannabinoid Research Society is delighted to announce our 34th annual ICRS Symposium on the Cannabinoids – to be held from June 30 to July 05, 2024 in Salamanca, Spain, at the Palacio de Congreso de Salamanca. We aim to facilitate engagement with a broad, global audience of diverse stakeholders in this highly impactful field of research.

The cutting-edge programme for our 34th Symposium will include:

- 50+ Oral Presentations – 12 min each, live and recorded/streaming HD video;
- 8 Plenary Presenters – Our brilliant, invited ICRS2024 speakers from all over the world;
- 200+ Poster Presentations – Presented during 3 - 2-hour poster sessions with live Q&A;
- Plus, trainee and delegate roundtables, discussions and sponsored events.

Our 2024 ICRS Symposium on the Cannabinoids will showcase international excellence in cannabinoid research – exploring aspects of pre-clinical, translational, and clinical research to support the development of evidence-based educational and treatment and policy options for our community. The mandate of the ICRS is to provide a rich environment for knowledge translation via an open forum for our diverse researchers to meet and discuss their research. In keeping with its mandate, the ICRS is committed to training and support of the future generation of highly qualified cannabinoid scientists, researchers, health professionals, innovators, entrepreneurs and policy makers. It is only with the help of generous Sponsors like you that we are able to provide registration awards to over 100+ qualified Trainee Members – each having completed our rigorous, peer-reviewed application process. We are requesting your financial assistance in helping us to continue this excellent tradition of cannabinoid research support. As an ICRS Sponsor, you will have unprecedented access to this vibrant, international community of scientists and clinicians. Your access to the ICRS community is our life blood. Indeed, literally all of the Cannabis Scientist's® 2022 PowerList (and 2021 PowerList, and 2020 PowerList) “R&D Trailblazers” are proud ICRS Members – including multiple past- and present ICRS Executives (2023 list is yet unpublished).

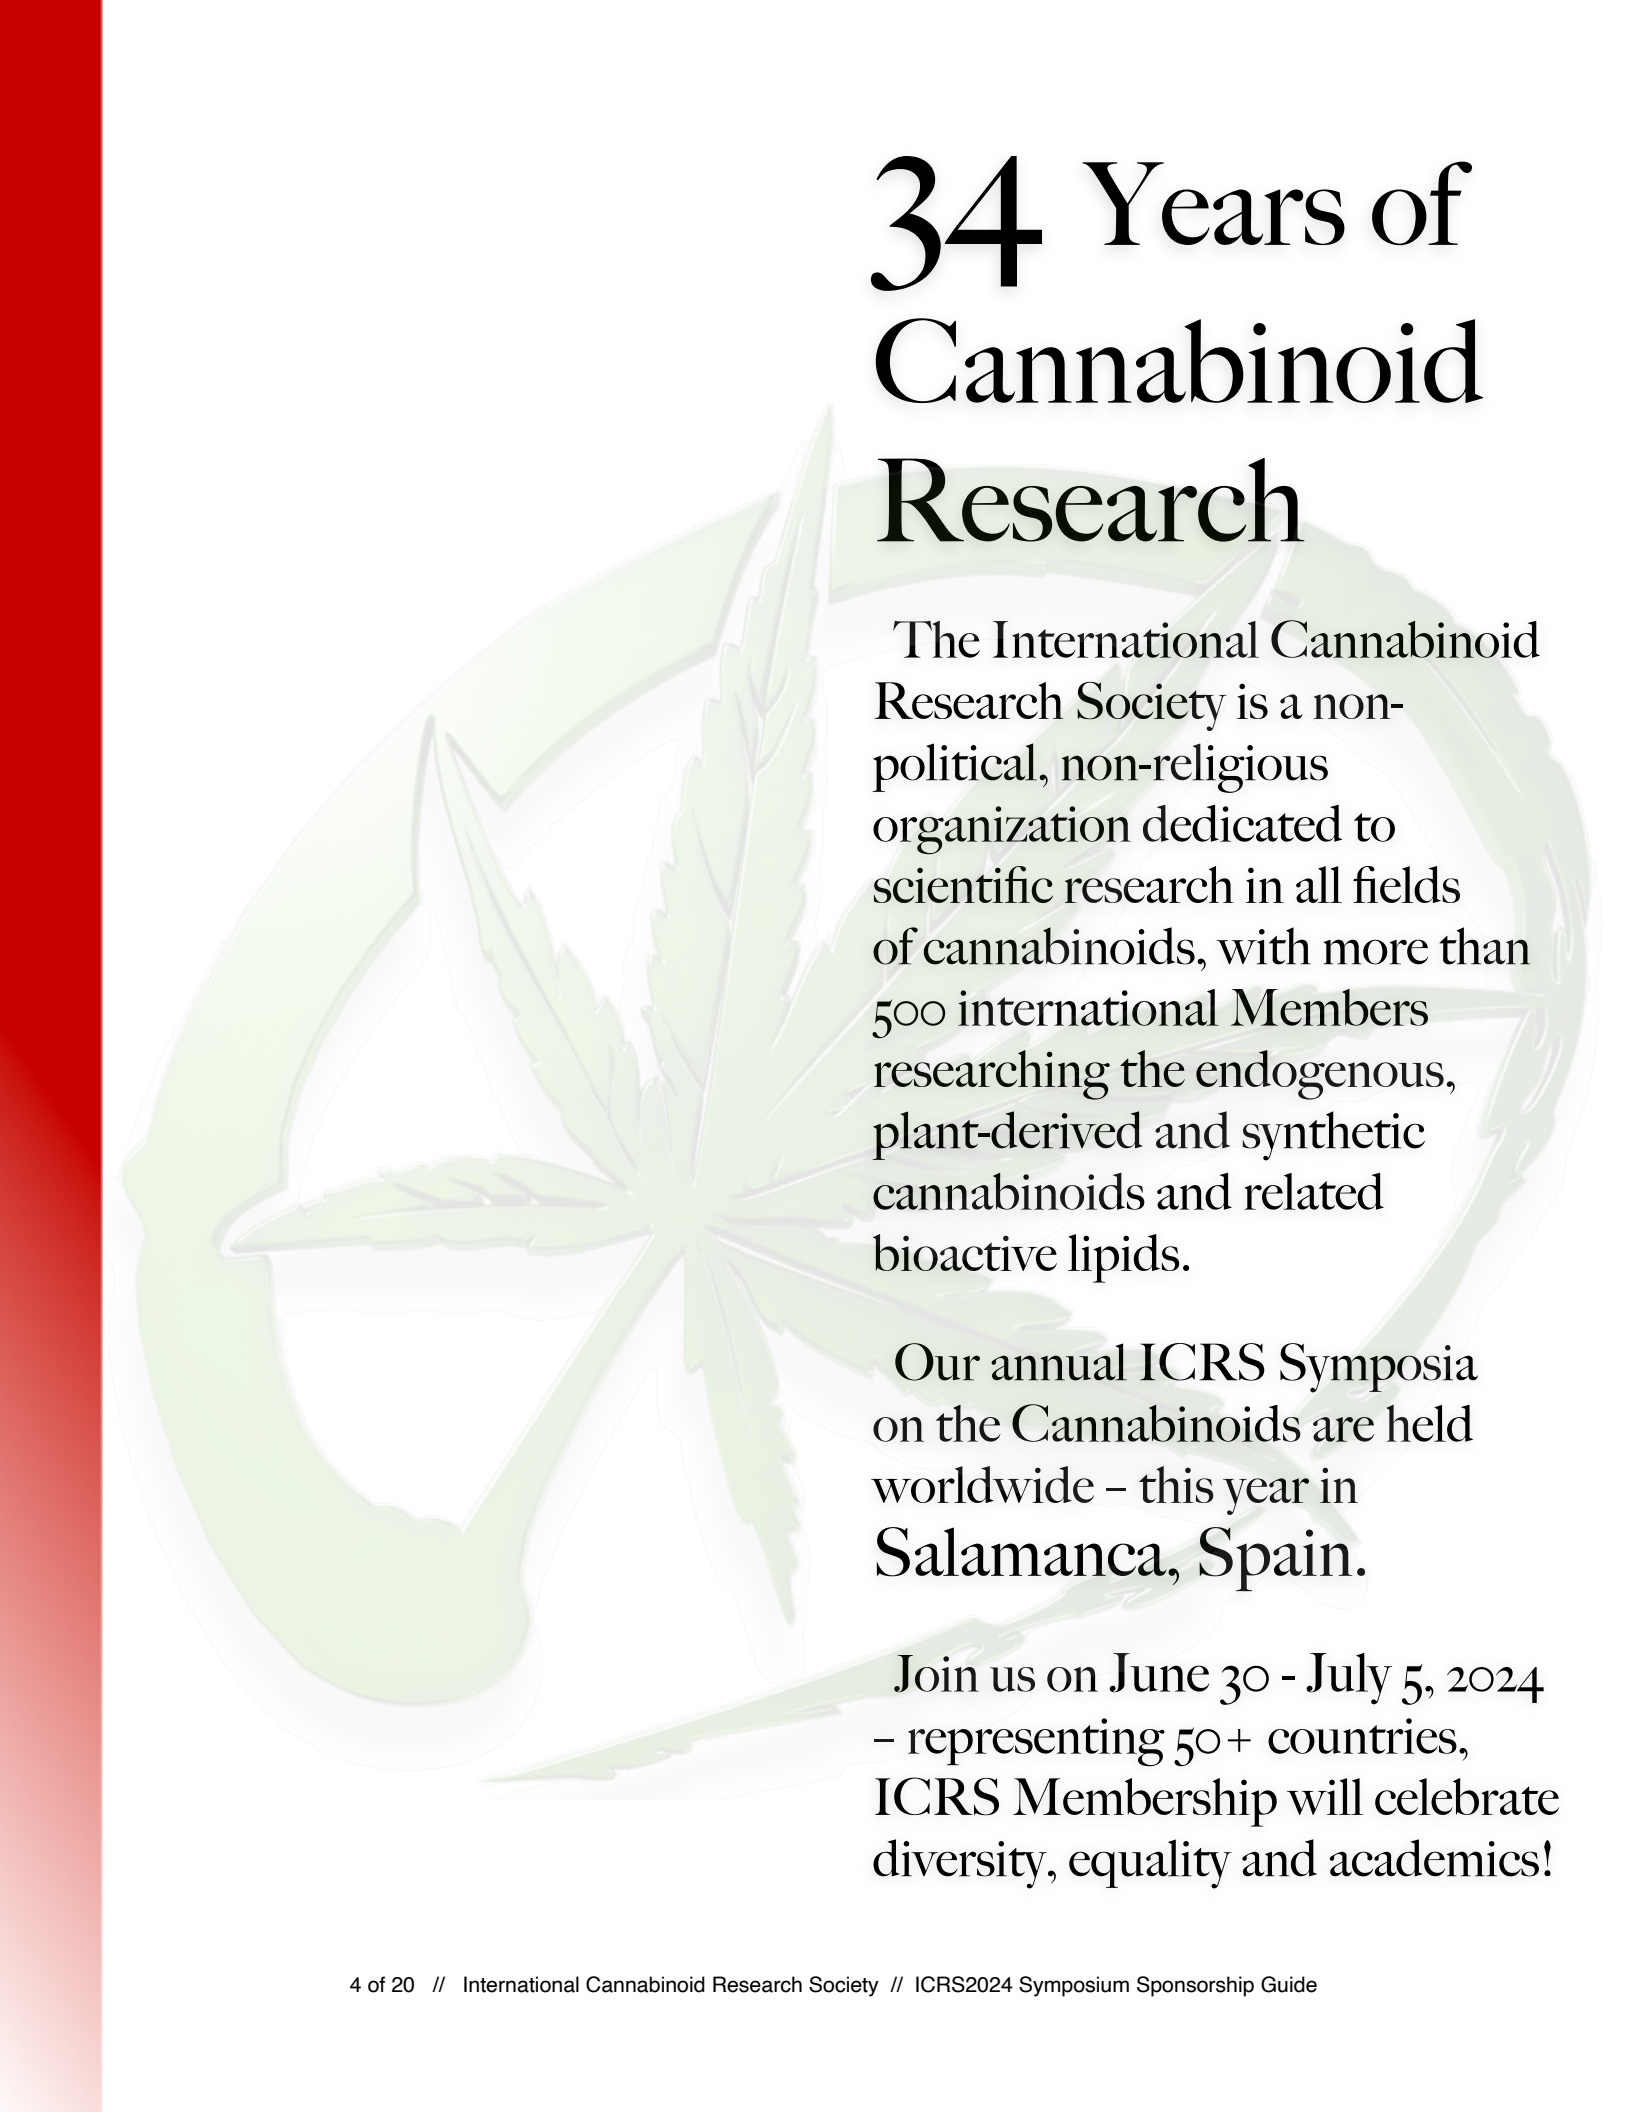

You may choose to sponsor one or more Trainee Grants, our plenaries, or individual sessions. These options are detailed below in this ICRS2024 Sponsorship Guide. As an added advantage of sponsorship, the ICRS has been designated a public charity under section 501(c)3 of the U.S. tax code. Accordingly, your U.S. contributions may be tax-deductible.

Thank you so much for your kind support of the ICRS – we look forward to hearing from you. Please feel free to contact us with any questions.
